The Elders
Church of Christ
138 N. "O" Street
Lompoc, California

Dear Brethren:

Please excuse my extremely tardy reply to your letter of September 20. I was happy to learn of the excellent work which the Lompoc group is doing. You present a very challenging and inspiring picture.

You may have seen a recent picture and story of our work here in Cookeville in the November 3 issue of the Christian Chronicle. This program precludes at this time the possibility of me considering any other work. I would be very happy to talk with you otherwise but feel it extremely unwise for me to consider such an action now.

I have written Brother M. Norvel Young thanking him for his recommendation and explaining my situation to him also. I offer you my best wishes and deepest concern for your continued growth and work for the Lord.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
